

Guest Lecture on 'Horticulture Investments and Export' (8th Jan 2019)

IIHR- student's club initiated its activity by organizing a guest lecture on 'horticulture investments and export' by three speakers, Ms. Seema Nayak, Mr. Hitesh Savla and Mr. Abhishek Dutta, agri/horti business expert from National Commodity & Derivatives Exchange Limited (NCDEX). The lecture-cum-interactive session, held on 08.01.2019, was a part of Investor Awareness Programme conducted by NCDEX, a Mumbai based professionally managed on-line multi-commodity exchange organisation, facilitating trading in future contracts in commodities to its members across India. The lecture was highly informative and covered the practical problems in agri/horti business and the significance of an open market whilst highlighting the functionality and role of commodity exchanges in India. The participants were provided with a certificate of participation.
